

Budget-Friendly Programs for You

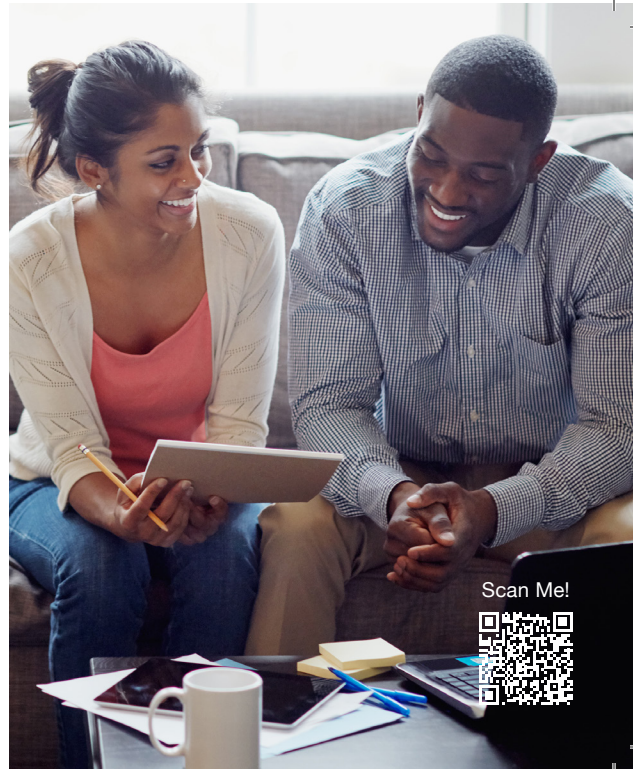

Avoid any spikes in your electric bill that can come with very hot and very cold weather and stay on track with your budget by paying an average bill all year long. With Santee Cooper Budget Billing, we'll calculate your yearly usage and split it evenly among the months. Any differences in actual usage will be made up at the end of the year.

Budget Billing is especially helpful during months like January and July, when your heating and air conditioning systems often work harder and use more electricity.

Here's another budget-friendly idea:
Our Pick Your Due Date program lets you choose which day of the month you pay your bill.
