Transmission Attachment Application Process

Attachment Application Process

Customer Opts to skip info request — No → Preliminary Information Request
- $500 fee
- 15 business days

Yes ↓

Preliminary Information Provided to Applicant
- Transmission line routes in the area and total length of each route
- Line name and ownership
- Line design information (voltage, typical structure height, typical structure type, longest span length, etc.)

Does Customer proceed? — No →

Yes ↓

Feasibility Study Request
- $10k Deposit
- 45 calendar days

Study Information Provided to Applicant
- Budgetary non-binding estimate of make-ready costs and time to complete
- Existing plan and profile drawings
- Existing encroachments (known)
- Landowner information on-file
- GIS data
- PLSCADD models (if available)
- Santee Cooper encroachment guidelines
- Santee Cooper Transmission Line Standard Reference Manual

Does Customer proceed? — No → End Process

Yes ↓

Engineering and Design Review Request
- $10k deposit
- 30 calendar days

Review Information Provided to Applicant
- Written statement of quality assurance review and verification of compliance with applicable codes and Santee Cooper design standards
- Detailed make-ready cost and time to complete estimate

Does Customer proceed? — No →

Yes ↓

Execute Construction Agreement