

Celebrate Energy Efficiency Day!

Energy Efficiency Day is Oct. 1, but why celebrate one day when you can see potential energy savings all year round. This month, smart thermostats are on sale, as low as $29.99, from Sept. 24 through Oct. 6 on Santee Cooper Marketplace! Smart thermostats can help optimize heating and cooling efficiency while allowing you to monitor and control your home's temperature from anywhere.

Marketplace is convenient and easy to use—just have your account number ready, and your items will be shipped directly to your home.
