

Strengthen Your Safety Skills

May is National Electricity Safety Month and the perfect time to put your electric safety skills into practice.

- Inspect cords and outlets for damage.
- Avoid overloading circuits.
- Use GFCI outlets in areas exposed to moisture.
- Clean vents, lint trays and areas around appliances.
- Know when to hire a professional.

Why Budget Billing Can Work for You

With Budget Billing, monthly expense planning is easier because you pay the same amount toward your electric bill every month. We'll review your usage at the end of the year and, if needed, settle the difference and adjust the next year's average bill amount. Budget Billing is available to residential and business GA-rate customers.
